

MEETING MINUTES

Institute of Transportation Engineers: Alaska Section

OFFICERS PRESENT: Art Johnson – Past President
Shawn Sniserenko – Vice President
Jennifer Satterfield – Treasurer
Josh Cross – Secretary

GENERAL ATTENDANCE: 56

TREASURER'S REPORT: September statement showed an approximate balance of $7,900

ONGOING/OLD BUSINESS:

- Brakes on Fatalities – Proclamation from Governor Palin designating October 10 as Put the Brakes on Fatalities Day.
- Continuing Education –
 - Safe Routes to School through Alaska Research and Technology Transfer.
 - Upcoming GIS class. Instructor will be Angela Parsons. Tentatively planned for late January/early February. Will be approximately 2 hours covering GIS basics, techniques, and existing data locations.
 - Josh requested the membership think about continuing education topics. Please e-mail him any suggestions – j.cross@lounsburyinc.com
- Budget was presented to membership for approval. Budget approved by membership.
- 2001 ITE District 6 Convention – Tony Strupulis reported that he and Melissa Mormillo met with the Anchorage Convention and Visitor's Bureau (ACVB). The ACVB will assist in preparing for the convention. Convention dates will be needed to make more detailed plans.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Engineer of the Year – nominations are being accepted. Please submit nominations to any of the officers.
- E-Week – Viking Hall has been booked. A steering committee has been formed. Details to come.

PRESENTATION: Steve Noble, DOWL Engineers, Glen Highway/Bragaw Street Interchange
Steve presented a project overview of the challenges and process in this design-build project. This project is the first phase of the highway-to-highway connection.

Details and updates can be found at <http://www.glennbragaw.com>.

NEXT MEETING SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 4, 2007.

OCTOBER 2007